

Utah Conservation Districts Continuing Education

Module 1: The Basics

Quiz

Circle the correct answer

1. What is the purpose of a conservation district?
 - a. To provide an opportunity for landowners to share ideas and successes
 - b. To identify local resource problems and develop solutions to those problems
 - c. To rent equipment
2. What is a key activity of conservation districts?
 - a. To propose bonds to fund conservation projects
 - b. To link land users with conservation service providers
 - c. To vote on county flooding control structures
3. What is one role of the conservation district supervisor?
 - a. Be an example of conservation management by practicing what they preach
 - b. Provide opportunities for social occasions for other board members
 - c. Lead district staff in fun-filled activities
4. What is the role of the conservation district staff?
 - a. To recruit new business opportunities for conservation district officials
 - b. To set goals for conservation districts
 - c. To implement policies and activities as directed and approved by the board
5. A soil conservation district has the authority to:
 - a. Declare eminent domain over property that is blighted
 - b. Mandate conservation practices that prevent water pollution
 - c. Approve or disapprove conservation plans
6. Conservation districts are legally described as:
 - a. Soil and water conservancy districts
 - b. Incorporated voting districts
 - c. Special service districts
7. Conservation districts have a legal responsibility to:
 - a. Provide a financial report and annual work plan to the state
 - b. Share legal boundaries with Utah counties
 - c. Maintain non-profit status
8. What is another role of the conservation district supervisor?
 - a. Share information with land users about state hunting laws
 - b. Seek funding to promote conservation and assist landowners in adopting conservation practices
 - c. Regulate state brand inspection